RESUBMISSION OF REPLY TO OFFICE ACTION

Sir:

Applicants wish to thank the Examiner for the September 30, 2002 telephone call informing applicants that applicants' Reply to the January 3, 2002 Office Action could not be located in the Patent and Trademark Office files. This is a resubmission of that Reply.

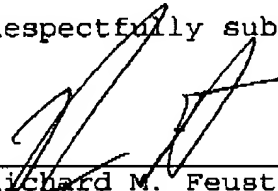

Applicants enclose copies of the Reply and the accompanying transmittal letter as filed by First Class Mail on March 20, 2002 (see certificate of First Class Mailing on each document). Applicants also enclose a copy of the date stamped postcard returned to applicants by the Patent Office. The postcard indicates that both the transmittal letter (in duplicate) and Reply to Office Action were received by the Patent and Trademark Office on March 25, 2002.

The postcard also indicates that the Patent Office received 121 sheets of formal drawings submitted with the Reply. If the Office cannot locate the drawings, please indicate so in the next communication and applicants will resubmit another set.

The foregoing demonstrates that applicants' Reply to the January 3, 2002 Office Action was timely filed. Applicants respectfully request that the Reply be considered.

Respectfully submitted,
